OPENER TO SEALSBees Clout Erickson But Leven-
renz Fails to Hold Out—
Score 6 to 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Lefty Levenrenz, Salt Lake's hope, was not equal to the occasion this afternoon and lost the first game of this week's crucial series with the Seals. The score was 6 to 4.

The Seals opened up on Levenrenz in the very first round, pounding him for three hits and as many runs. In the third they registered four safeties and scored twice and in this inning the managerial powers from Salt Lake got busy and put Schinkle in the box.

Be it said for Schinkle that he held the California hopes to four hits and one run in the five-odd innings he twirled. He went in with the bases full and only one out and proceeded to retire the side, but it was too late.

Erickson, in the meantime, had also been lapped in the first for three hits, but only one run. In the third and fifth, the Bees tallied again. Then in the ninth the boys from Utah started a rally which netted them three hits and a run, but Erickson tightened and with close support "saved the day." Gislason, batting in the pinch for Schinkle, failed to deliver.

Tobin started at the bat with three hits, including two doubles, in five times up.

The Bees hit the ball hard and often, but at inopportune times. Bernhard's club looked more like its former self with Shelly and Orr back in the game again after a week's absence. Orr played a lightning-fast fielding game, but wound up the day with two errors.

Five Errors and Lose
Game 4 to 0.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19.—The Beavers made mincemeat out of Clinton Prough's offerings today and won the game, 4 to 0. But Prough didn't lose the battle without assistance, his teammates contributing to the result with five errors.

Two of these latter were made on a single batted ball in the first inning. With Farmer down, Hollocher hit a ball right between Mensor's stilts. Holly reached first and, upon casting his observant eye about, discovered that the ball had gone right on through Hack Miller's husky shafts. The runner reached second and Prough was so flabbergasted that he walked Willie and Williams.

Griggs brought in Hollocher with a long fly and Rodgers was thrown out by Prough. The score:

ONLY FIFTEEN MEN

REPORT AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Only fifteen candidates for the 1917 football team of the University of Chicago reported to Coach A. A. Stagg on the first day of practice, and nearly half of these were green material.

Three veterans of last year—Carl Brels, John Bondzinski and Bill Gorz—were on the initial squad. Scrimmage practice is expected before the last of the week.

HOWARD PLAYING AS DETECTIVE

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—Del Howard, manager of the Oakland club, is figuring on playing detective. The Oakland manager is trying to figure out who broke the locks on his baseball supplies of the club. When they were delivered to the ground today it was found that all of them had been forced open, but nothing had been taken, along the line or in Portland had imagined that these might have contained liquor of some kind and taken a chance on making a discovery as this is a dry state.

Howard says that he means to take the matter up with the city officials and find out by what right his trunks were searched.

A trunk full of liquor recently came up with the Portland baseball trunks, being mixed in some way, and was never claimed. This may have caused the officers to be on the watch for other like occurrences.

AGGIES REPORT FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

LOGAN, Sept. 18.—Coach Jack Watson of the Farmers was kept busy today extending the glad hand to a number of old men who are back to school.

Among those who called for suits were Capt. Alvin Twitchell, tackle; Arle Lindquist, end; Allen Conkright and Percy Hanson, halfbacks, and Douglas Cannon, center, and Dell Gardner, guard. There were also others who are in the harness as new men this week who will make a strong bid for a position on the Aggie eleven.

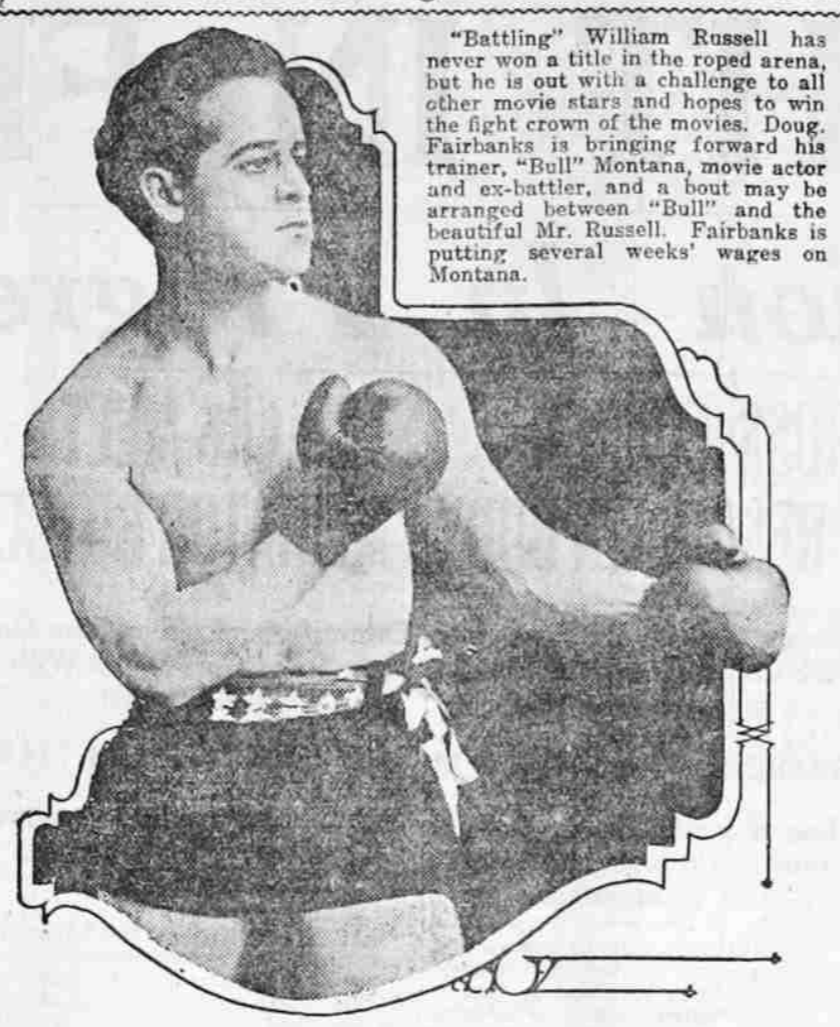

Watson will get down to business this week, and training rules for the men will commence when they don the suit for the first time. One or two of them have been reluctant in reporting, but they have promised the coach to get into line immediately.

FRANK BAKER READY

TO QUIT GAME AGAIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Frank Baker, third baseman of the Yankees, will quit baseball for good if the suspension is permitted to stand for the remainder of the season, it was stated here this afternoon.

Baker claims he was unjustly treated and says that his baseball future is entirely in the hands of Col. Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York club.

MANY A STAR OF THE BOXING
GAME HAS NEVER WORN A CROWN

Left to right (above): Monte Attell and Frankie Burns. Below: Joe Mandot.

There have been many stars in the fight game who have had great records and have shown all of the earmarks of champions and yet have never managed to win a crown. Frankie Burns, the veteran bantam, is still one of the best in the game and should have had the belt some years ago. Monte Attell, Jimmie Dunn, Young Ahearn, Johnny Dundee, Peter Jackson and many others since the earliest days have failed to win titles though they had all the class.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR THREE-YEAR OLD
FILLIES MADE

RACE TRACK, COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18.—A new world's record for three-year-old fillies was established at the Grand Circuit races here today when the brown filly, The Real Lady, won the $8000 horse review futurity, doing the second heat in 2:04 1/4 to 2:04 1/4 made by Volga last season.

It was a bad day for favorites, as Harvest Gale, the futurity favorite, finished out of the money, with the second choice, Miss Bertha Dillon, landing second money. This is the fastest two heat race ever trotted by three-year-olds.
